Gold & Gems – Pawn or Sell? How to Get the Most in Queens, NY

Understanding the Real Value of Gold

Before you even step into a pawn shop, you need to understand what you have. Gold is typically marked in karats
- 10k – 41.7% gold
- 14k – 58.3% gold (most common in the U.S.)
- 18k – 75% gold
- 22k – 91.6% gold
- 24k – 99.9% pure gold (usually in coins or investment bars)

The higher the karat, the more valuable the gold. However, pawn shops won't pay the full market price because th

Where to Sell Gold & Jewelry in Queens, NY

You've got options:
1. Local Pawn Shops
2. Jewelry Stores
3. Gold & Diamond Buyers
4. Online Gold Buyers

Each has pros and cons, but local pawn shops often provide a fast, no-pressure way to sell or get a short-term loa

Selling vs. Pawning – Which Is Better?

Selling means you hand over your item and get cash — no strings attached.
Pawning means you get a short-term loan, and your item is used as collateral. If you repay the loan (plus interest)
When to Sell:
- You don't want the item back
- You want the most cash upfront
- You're done with old or broken jewelry

When to Pawn:
- The item has sentimental value
- You need quick cash but plan to repay
- You're not ready to part with your gold or gems

What Items Do Pawn Shops Love?

- Gold & Silver Jewelry (even broken!)
- Diamonds (loose or set)
- Gemstones: Emeralds, Rubies, Sapphires
- Designer Jewelry: Tiffany, Cartier, etc.
- Luxury Watches: Rolex, Patek Philippe, Breitling
- Precious Metal Coins & Bullion

How to Avoid Getting Ripped Off

1. Know the Market Value – Check current gold prices online
2. Get Multiple Quotes – Visit 2-3 places before making a decision
3. Check for Hallmarks – Small stamps indicating purity
4. Ask for a Weight Breakdown – Don't accept a lump sum without explanation
5. Avoid Mail-In Services – These are risky and often offer the lowest payouts
